

INHERENT RIGHT TEMPLATE

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code (24 Elements) MODEL

1. Preamble

- Expresses the beliefs, values, philosophy and, or principles of the First Nation;

2. Title

- States the title of the code;
 - This Citizenship Code will be called or cited as the Stand Alone First Nations Citizenship Code

3. Purpose

- Explains the intent, reason or purpose of the code;

4. Jurisdiction and Authority

- Explains and asserts that the First Nations has the authority and jurisdiction to decide on their citizenship
- Explains who or what body/entity/committee/Council will decide or affirm the citizenship of a person
- May explain the difference between membership and citizenship;

5. Definition

- Defines technical, legal or ambiguous words;

6. Entitlement and Eligibility Criteria for Citizenship

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

- Entitlement means the right to, or the right to be entitled to citizenship because of one's birth; it is an inherent right.
- Eligibility to citizenship implies that a person has to meet certain criteria to apply to be recognized or enrolled as a citizen.
- Explains who has entitlement to First Nation citizenship
- Explains the specific criteria to apply for citizenship

7. Non - Member Resident

- This is a common element of a citizenship code
- Explains who and what defines a non - member resident;
- May explain certain conditions, restrictions or probation for a non – member resident;

8. Citizenship Committee

- Explains who will decide or affirm a person's citizenship
- Explains the Committee's composition;
- Explains whether the Committee members are appointed, elected or volunteers
- Explains the rules and procedures the Committee must follow when deciding on a person's citizenship;

9. Application Process for Citizenship

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

- Explains that a person is a citizen at birth and that they do not need to apply for citizenship
- Explains that if a person does not have automatic (at birth) citizenship then the person must apply for their citizenship
- Explains the application process;
- Explains what documentation is required to apply;

10. Appeal and Review Process

- Explains that a person has the right to appeal a decision concerning their citizenship
- Explains who will review the appeal;
- Explains how the appeal will be reviewed;
- Explains how the decision will be made;
- Explains how the person will be notified of the decision of the review of the appeal
- Explains on what grounds a person can make an appeal;
- Explains how many times a person can make on appeal
- May explain that a fee is required to submit an appeal
- May explain that a person can make a written or verbal presentation if a person's citizenship is refused
- May state that the decision of an appeal is final and binding

11. Reinstatement of Citizens

- This is not an essential element of a citizenship Code

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

- Explains that a person is entitled to be a citizen if that person lost their status due to the regulations of the *Indian Act
- Explains that the person must apply for citizenship

12. Adoption of Children

- Explains that a child may be adopted and whether that child will be a citizen when they reach the age of majority
- Explains that customary adoptions are respected and that a child will be a citizen
- Explains that only legally sanctioned adoptions will be accepted

13. Citizen's Rights and Benefits

- Explains the rights and benefits a citizen is entitled;
 - A citizen has the right to;
 - Vote
 - Hold a political office
 - Receive education funding
 - Receive housing assistance
 - Be buried on the Territory

14. Privileges of Non - Member Resident

- This is not an essential element of a citizenship code

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

- May explain that a non - member resident may have certain rights
- May state that a non-member resident does not confer benefits, rights or entitlements from the community
- May state that a non-member resident may have to pay certain fess for services

15. Roles and Responsibilities of a Citizen

- Explains the roles and responsibilities of a citizen;

16. Obligations of Non - Member Resident

- This is not an essential element of a citizenship code
- May explain that a non - member resident is obligated to;

17. Suspension, Revocation and Renouncement of Citizenship

- Explains the reason(s) why a person's citizenship would be suspended or revoked;
- Explains why a person's citizenship would be revoked or renounced;

18. Offences and Penalties

- This is not an essential element of a citizenship Code
- Explains what constitutes an offence and what fines that person must pay

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

19. Registrar

- The Registrar is a person
- The Registrar is usually the only person who records the names of the members onto the registry or official citizenship list
- Explains the Registrar's duties and responsibilities.

20. Registry

- Is the First Nation's "Official" list of citizens
- The registry is administered and maintained by the Registrar
- The Registry can be referred to as:
 - First Nations Registry
 - Band List
 - Citizenship List
 - Citizenship Registry
- Explains where the registry will be kept and who has access to it
- States whether the Registry will be sent to Indian and Northern Affairs Canada

21. Regulations

- This is not a essential element of a citizenship code
- Explains that the Citizenship Committee can make regulations or rules as to how they will decide on citizenship

Key Elements of a Stand Alone Citizenship Code
(24 Elements)
MODEL

22. General Provisions

- This is not a essential element of a citizenship code
- May state that the Preamble is an essential part of the code
- May state budget or funds for the implementation and administration of the code

23. Amendment Process

- Explains that the citizenship code may be amended or changed, from time to time
- Explains the process of how the code will be changed
- Explains how such changes will be accepted or ratified

24. Enactment of Code

- Explains when and how the code will be passed or ratified
- Explains that previous code(s) will be repealed